

SHABBATON WEEKEND AT ADAT YESHUA WITH SPECIAL GUEST DAN GRUBER MAY 3-5, 2024

Daniel Gruber is the author of such remarkable works as "The Church and the Jews", "The Messianic Writings" and "Copernicus & the Jews (The Separation of Church & Faith, Vol. 1)", among many others.

He focuses on the intersection of government and faith including Judaism, Christianity, and contemporary international law.

He has spoken in a wide variety of venues, from the Papal Theological Academy in Krakow to the Fermi Lab Society of Philosophy outside Chicago.

He has taught in numerous countries on 5 continents and has written 10 books. His books have been translated into Hebrew, Polish, Dutch, Spanish, German, and Russian.

His topic for us will be:

Living in a World at War - Perspectives from Genesis 37 - 50
Life as Part of the Battle:

Self - Family - Your Country - International - Israel and the Jews

Pre-Registration Is Required To Attend This Event

Event cost: Pay in advance, All Sessions: $35.00 individual; $50 with spouse

Pay at Door: $45.00 individual; $60 with spouse

Please register online by May 1st at:

www.adatyeshuakc.com

EVENT SCHEDULE:

Friday, May 3rd: Evening Shabbat Service: 7:15
Saturday, May 4th: Morning Shabbat Service: 10:15 am
Lunch: Congregation and seminar attendees
Session III: 2:00 pm
Session IV: 3:15 pm
Session V: 4:30 pm
Sunday, May 5th: Brunch & Q&A with Dan: 10:15 am